

Leadership & Influencing

Course Duration: 2 Days

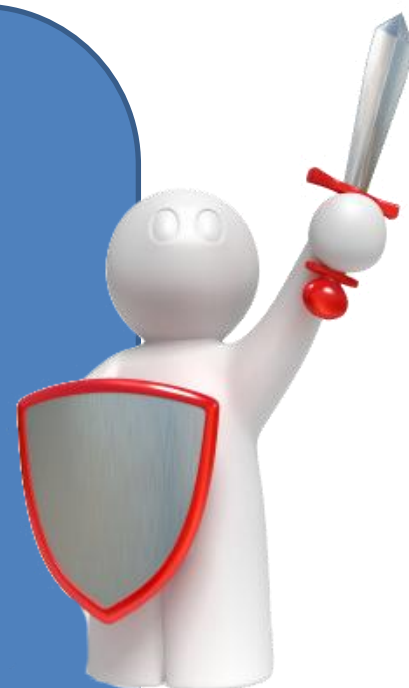

Course Overview

Leaders come in many forms but ultimately leadership is about influence. Examples of great leadership are all around us, at home, in our communities and in the organisations in which we work. In terms of team and organisational performance, great leadership is often the difference between success, mediocrity and failure. Leadership is also a key factor in organisational culture, job satisfaction and employee engagement.

This course aims to demystify leadership and provide participants with the theory, principles and models of great leadership as well as providing practical tools and approaches that can be immediately applied in almost any organisational context.

Workshop Objectives:

- Define “leadership”
- Explain the Great Man Theory
- Explain the Trait Theory
- Understand Transformational Leadership
- Understand the people you lead and how to adapt your leadership style
- Explain leading by Directing
- Explain leading by Participating
- Explain leading by Delegating
- Kouzes and Posner
- Conduct a personal inventory
- Create an action plan
- Establish personal goals

Further information

For further information about this course please contact an AGT

Learning & Development Consultant on 1300 784 408

A full list of courses can be found at www.agt.edu.au